

White Paper Company

Social Housing Allocations

Andy Gale

andygalehousing@outlook.com

Social Housing Allocation Policies on Trial

Allocations Policies 'under attack from all sides' are now on trial

- ❖ Have knowingly been unlawful and have to be put right by the hard pressed under paid judicial system
- ❖ Guilty of neglect by damaging social housing in high demand areas
- ❖ Guilty of neglect by damaging social housing in low demand areas?
- ❖ Have knowingly forced some Housing Associations to threaten to walk away?
- ❖ Have deliberately mislead the public through a mis-selling con trick known by the name of Choice Based Lettings
- ❖ Have forgotten their purpose – neglecting the public leading to a complete lack of Public Confidence

Social Housing Allocation Policies on trial

And the most damning charge?

Allocation Policies are responsible for Brexit?

This session will form the case for the prosecution We will examine the evidence and if guilty as charged what must be done to pay back to society

Can I remind all in this room we are all also on trial as aiding and abetting this crime